The four pillars of Greek life are scholarship, leadership, service and friendship for life. To be recognized as an outstanding Greek leader, you must exemplify these values in your daily life. Base your responses on your actions and activities of this school year (2007/08). Be sure to provide specific examples. On a separate sheet of paper, please respond to the following questions. Your answers should not exceed more than one typed page.

1. Scholarship – Describe your 07/08 academic year. What challenges did you face? What were your successes? How did you serve as an academic role model in your chapter?
2. Leadership – Describe your 07/08 leadership experiences. What formal leadership positions did you hold? What were your leadership challenges? What were your successes? How did you impact your chapter? How did you impact the Greek community?
3. Service – Describe your 07/08 service experiences. What forms of service did you perform this year? Why did you choose to participate in these service activities? How can you relate your service experiences to your Greek experience? What was significant about your service activities?
4. Friendship for life – Describe your 07/08 Greek experience. How did your year deepen the friendships you've made? How were your friendships challenged because of your Greek experience. How do the values of your organization play into the relationships you've developed?
5. How have your contributions to the Greek and/or university community made you distinguished?

To be eligible for consideration, the following items must be submitted on Monday, March 31, 2008.
